A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times: "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe it. It is a medicine of iron and the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemist will substantiate the assertion that there are no more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfect, satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures indigestion, flatulency, weakness, dyspepsia, malaria, chills and fevers, tired feeling, general debility, pain in the side, back or limbs, headache and neuralgia—for all these ailments iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active, the eyes begin to shine, the skin clears up, healthy color comes to the cheeks, nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it. The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. TAKE NO OTHER.

THE FUGITIVE BOODLER.

AN INTERVIEW WITH M'GARIGLE
NEAR PORT CALBOURNE, CANADA.

He is Anxious to Settle Up His Affairs in Chicago—His Arrest By Canadian Authorities, and His Trial at Montreal at Last Definitely Settled.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—A special to the Herald from St. Catharines, Ont., states that their correspondent yesterday met W. J. McGarigle, the fugitive boodler, on the outskirts of Port Colborne, where he was waiting for a train for St. Catharines. When asked where he was going McGarigle said: "I am going to some place for rest. I am dying for rest. I am walking, running and riding to escape the pursuers, but it is the worry, the awful worry that is killing me."

After some preliminary talk in which he complained of misrepresentations by ambitious newspaper correspondents McGarigle said:

"Now, I am going to make you a short statement and you will please let me take some of your paper. I will write down what I say and you can keep it. In this way I will have a copy, and if it is changed I shall be able to show that you have misrepresented me."

He then dictated a letter in which he reiterated his former statements that it was impossible for him to live in jail. He denies having offered to testify in behalf of the state and says there was nothing wrong with the hospital management. He knows nothing that would connect M. C. McDonald with any sort of crime. He is anxious to make a settlement of his affairs so as to go back to Chicago, but he cannot consent to die in the jail or penitentiary.

McGarigle gave an account of his experiences since he left Sarnia. After driving to Wyoming and taking the train for London, as has been reported, he went to Hamilton and from there to Niagara Falls—the Canada side, of course. From there he took the Canada Southern to Dunnville, changing to the Grand Trunk at Port Colborne. He was not, he says, in St. Catharines at all Tuesday, but passed through there on his way to the falls.

McGarigle, when told about the Baxter case against him, said he was not worried about that. He would get the officials of the province of Ontario to give Montreal notice that she will have to prove the alleged perjury or defamation of character before he would go there. He is not afraid that any charge of forgery can be trumped up against him.

McGarigle is very anxious for the arrival of the Blake as he has valuable baggage on that vessel. His pockets are filled with money, and he evidently has interests of a money character in the arrival of the Blake. McGarigle, it may be flatly stated, is in the care and keeping of Frederick St. John, brother of the doctor. This is not to say that he is at the St. John's mansion, which is the finest in St. Catharines, nor can the writer, without breaking faith with McGarigle, say what residence he has chosen.

One of the most marvelous features of the case is the wonderful risk which Dr. St. John has taken to aid McGarigle to escape. When asked what he thought of Dr. St. John's chances of going to the penitentiary, McGarigle broke town like a child. Unless the detectives get close to McGarigle he will remain here for the present and rest, and if possible, open negotiations with State's Attorney Grinnell for his return. For this he is very anxious. He says he does not want to bring his wife and children away from Chicago, but that he can not live without them very long. He is very much opposed to talking about the Cook county thieves.

He appeared to be in good health, but his nerves had been worked to a high tension, and he says he must have rest or he cannot survive long. One of the strangest things about him is that he has shaved his face, leaving the mustache and sideburns, but cutting off the goatee so as to correspond exactly with the photographs pasted upon Sheriff Matson's $2,500 reward circular. This evening he read it over carefully, and then laughingly said:

"It's not exactly complimentary. The description is good, except the 'cat-like' movement and the insinuating manner, but I shan't complain."

To Be Prosecuted at Montreal.
CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Sheriff Matson and Inspector Bonfield received some pleasing intelligence by dispatches from Canada last evening. They refused to allow them to be seen, but their purport was that it was definitely settled that McGarigle will be prosecuted at Montreal, and that it was certain that his arrest by the Canadian authorities was a question of a short time; that the section of the country in which he was hiding yesterday was closely patrolled, and he would not get out of it as easy as he passed through the Straits of Mackinac. Both officials went home with the most comfortable feeling they have experienced since the escape.

Interest in the Schooner Blake.
PORT COLBORNE, Canada, Aug. 5.—The schooner Edward Blake is coming to the Welland canal. All of Port Colborne is down about the shore, eager to see what is to be seen. The Blake and her crew are the dime museum of the hour. Capt. Irwin claims that he does not know McGarigle. He says he supposed that he was Williamson, a friend of the man who introduced him to him in Chicago. "If I had known he was a convict," says Irwin, "I would not have carried him away. The man who introduced him to me gave me to understand that the passenger was a drinking man, and he wanted him to take a little trip."

Dr. St. John in the Conspiracy.
CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Evidence of Dr. St. John's connection with the escape of McGarigle is given this morning in the News, which gives the substance of two conversations had with the doctor by Captain Irwin, of the schooner Blake, over the telephone. In these talks reference was made to the preparations for the speedy departure of the schooner and the necessity of having the mysterious passenger "Williams" ready at a certain place and time. The News claims that this settles Dr. St. John's connection with the conspiracy.

SERIOUS CONFLAGRATIONS.

The Town of Bowling Green Almost Destroyed—Fatal Fire in Boston.

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 5.—Bowling Green, a small town in Wood county, twenty miles south of this city, was visited with a serious conflagration early this morning. At 1 o'clock fire was discovered between two frame buildings on the main street. The fire department proved inadequate for the occasion, and when the citizens saw that the whole town was likely to burn they telegraphed for an engine from the city.

In spite of the combined efforts of citizens and firemen, the flames spread with frightful rapidity, and in a short time two entire squares were a mass of flames. Fortunately the wind died down, and the firemen succeeded in confining the fire to this quarter. At 2:45 the flames were subdued and the danger was past. The village is a sad looking sight, the heart of it being burned out. Twenty-two buildings were burned, entailing a loss of $35,000. Among the buildings burned was the Perry house, the guests of which escaped uninjured. The Sentinel office was saved only by the greatest exertions. The insurance is about $22,000. The burned district will be rebuilt at once. The individual losses are very small.

Fatal Fire in Baltimore.
BALTIMORE, Aug. 5.—Fire broke out this morning in the extensive cracker bakery of James D. Mason & Sons on Pratt street, near Light, which was entirely destroyed, with all its contents and machinery. It extended on the right to the double building occupied by Henderson, Laws & Co., crackers, oakes and candies, which was also destroyed.

William Schulte, foreman of engine No. 12, was on one of the lower floors when the upper floors fell in and he was buried beneath the ruins and killed. His body has not yet been recovered. Chief Engineer Henneke, of the fire department, was on the same floor and was seriously injured. His death is feared. The flames continued to spread on the right to the stove warehouse of Liebrandt, McDowell & Co., which was destroyed, and to the agricultural warehouse of E. Whitman & Sons, the upper part of which was burned out.

In the left of the building in which the fire originated the book and stationary store of Newton, Kurtz & Son, containing a large stock, was burned, and all the upper floors of the grain and produce commission house of E. B. Owens & Co., were destroyed. The fire spread to the south and took hold of the tin warehouse of E. L. Parker & Co., fronting on Charles street, which was wrecked and the stock ruined. Their damage is estimated at $60,000. The entire damage is now estimated at $500,000.

Lake Steamer Burned.
PORT HURON, Mich., Aug. 5.—The steamer Hiawatha, one of the ferry company's boats, was burned to the water's edge, while lying at her dock in Black river, early this morning. The fire spread to Wellman Brothers' grain mill, consuming it and its contents. Loss on steamer, $10,000; covered by insurance; on mill, $3,000; no insurance. A wheel came off the hose cart while it was running to the fire and William McDonald was badly hurt.

Struck by a Freight Train.

He leaves a wife and three children.

Canada Don't Want McGarigle.
TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 5.—In a leading editorial this morning, the Globe says: There ought to be no ceremony about surrendering a convicted boodler of the McGarigle stripe. It is true Canada is not legally bound to surrender him, but what do we want of him? A New York paper points out that under similar circumstances Spain surrendered Tweed. Why not Canada give up McGarigle?

After the $2,500 Reward.
NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The World's Hamilton, Ont., special says: McGarigle, the Chicago boodler, spent yesterday about six miles from St. Catharines at a farm house. Matt Pinkerton and two detectives are here. Pinkerton is said to be following McGarigle to aid him and not in the interests of Chicago. Other men are looking for the $2,500 reward.

A BEAUTIFUL BACK-DOWN

THE BOULANGER-FERRY FIGHT NOT LIKELY TO TAKE PLACE.

M. Ferry's Cowardice Rapidly Losing Him Friends While Boulanger's Friends Are Increasing in Number—"Better Dead Than Living"—Foreign News.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—The situation of the parties to the Boulanger-Ferry imbroglio remains unchanged, except that Gen. Boulanger's friends are rapidly increasing in numbers while those of M. Ferry are showing a corresponding falling off. When M. Ferry denounced Gen. Boulanger in his speech at Epinal as a "St. Arnaud of the music halls," a great many persons, for a variety of reasons, believed that the ex-premier spoke the truth, not that the ex-war minister had ever evinced any disposition to follow in the footsteps of that infamous general, but merely because a statesman of the eminence of M. Ferry had asserted his conviction that Gen. Boulanger cherished selfish and unpatriotic notions of the uses to which the army of France should be put.

When Gen. Boulanger challenged M. Ferry these same Frenchmen thought the former's action an unpardonable piece of impudence, and blindly construed his resentment of M. Ferry's gratuitous vilification into confirmation of the latter's asseveration of the former's falsity. When, however, M. Ferry thought his chosen representatives declined to accord to Gen. Boulanger the satisfaction due from the aggressor to the party aggrieved, and attempted to shield himself from the danger of personal injury behind the technicalities of the code the scales fell from the eyes of the followers of the champion of the disastrous Tonquin campaign, and they beheld a soldier of France beset upon all sides by enemies, whose soul cause of enmity was their jealousy of his well-earned popularity, vainly seeking to obtain redress from the coward who had traduced him.

Even the most bitter of Gen. Boulanger's enemies in official, political and military circles—he has only two—in the latter who are interested in keeping themselves in desirable places by currying the favor of the ministry—recognize the fact that M. Ferry must fight. He has reaped all the glory obtainable from haranguing a gaping, jeering crowd and indulging in cheap witticisms and groundless accusations at the expense of a man he thought to be beyond the limits of striking back, and he must take the consequences.

There is no doubt that there is no more uncomfortable man in France to-day than M. Ferry, but he will find his position still more unendurable if he attempts to dismiss this matter with contempt and to throw himself back upon the assumption that he has given Gen. Boulanger an opportunity to obtain satisfaction of which that officer declined to avail himself. It would be better for M. Ferry to be killed by Gen. Boulanger than to attempt to live down the contempt and ostracism that would surely follow his failure to back up his words. He would be no more lifeless to those who now think well of him should a bullet from Boulanger's pistol pierce his heart, than he would be if he should eventually shrink the danger of a duel by an abject resort to subterfuge and quibbling at immaterial provisions of the code.

Mrs. Oder complained of the damage done to her property in Fifth ward by overflow from the new railroad and asked that she be allowed the taxes on said property for years 1885 and 1886. On motion the amount of taxes was donated.

The McCune note was reported settled. It has been on the minutes for several years.

The fees of the Inspectors of the special election in Third ward were ordered paid.

Mr. Mathews reported that the new gutter on the south side of Third street, east of Market, would be completed in a few days. President Phister here read a communication from M. C. Russell complaining about said gutter; that as now constructed it would throw most of the water to the north side of the street and flood the cellar of his business house. He served notice that he would hold the city accountable for any damage that might occur therefrom. To this Mr. Mathews replied that the street railway company intended raising its track several inches, and this, when done, would remedy the trouble complained of.

No work was reported as yet done on repairing gutter on west side of Market street, between Second and the river. Mr. Wood thought it was an outrage; the work had been ordered some time ago. The matter would be allowed to run until it would take dollars to do the work, where cents would answer now.

Committee on Fire Department was given further time to select some new hose for the Amazon Fire Company.

Concerning the gravel bar reported at the foot of the wharfboat, Mr. Phister, wharfmaster, had communicated with Superintendent Merrill, at Cincinnati. Mr. Merrill's answer was read to Council. It stated that the Government dredge boats were all at Pittsburgh at present, and would remain there this season. Had any of them been passing soon he would cheerfully have had them dredge away the bar. A private dredge boat was, however, expected to pass down soon, and Mr. Phister, wharfmaster, has written to make arrangements to have the bar removed.

Committee on Propositions and Grievances reported that the Sunday Morning Call was the only paper to make a bid for the city printing, the Republican and BULLETIN declining to do the work at less than regular rates. On recommendation of the committee the printing was ordered to be as equally divided as possible between the city papers—ordinances to be published but one time.

Marshal's attention was again called to the condition of the old warehouse on corner of Front and Wall streets. He was directed to see that the nuisance is abated.

Karr & Co. were granted a coffeehouse license, their place of business to be at the old Schatzmann House on Market street, now owned by Joseph A. Diener.

The following permits were granted: Patrick Monahan, frame stable on Fleming pike; E. B. Powell, frame stable and coal house on his property in Fifth ward; Samuel McNutt, frame stable on West Third street.

Dr. G. M. Williams, owner of Armstrong Chapel, in Fifth ward, applied for a permit to remodel the building, make some frame additions and convert it into a dwelling house. A protest to this application was filed by Collins & Rudy, and the matter was referred to Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

The following ordinance was read and laid over till next meeting for further action:

§ 1. Be it ordained by the Board of Councilmen of the City of Maysville, That, from and after the first day of December 1887, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to have any hogs or pigs within the city limits, either running at large or confined in pens; and any person or persons violating this ordinance shall, on conviction before the Mayor, be fined in any sum not exceeding ten dollars for each day's violation of same.

§ 2. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance is not intended to interfere with the necessary passing through the city with hogs by traders or their confinement in pens awaiting shipment.

§ 3. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance take effect from and after the first day of December 1887, which time is given to enable all hog owners to dispose of their stock.

The attention of the Internal Improvement Committee was called to the condition of the gutter on Second street, north side, between Market and Cox & Son's store.

The Citizens' Gas Light Company got a good scoring for its delay in erecting public lamps ordered two or three months ago. It was also asserted that two or three lamps hadn't been lit for some time. The matter was placed in the hands of the Marshal for investigation.

Mr. Mathews reported that the grading of Forest avenue was about completed, and it was ordered that the Internal Improvement Committee advertise for bids for rock same, work not to cost more than the subscriptions from property owners along the street amounted to.

Mr. Cox called attention to the pond on south side of Second street extension. It was in a very filthy condition—a hog wallow and frog pond. A lengthy discussion ensued during which it was developed that the city has paid over $200 a few years ago for putting in a sewer that was intended to thoroughly drain the pond. It was now as bad as ever. The matter was referred to Committee on Internal Improvements to be attended to at once.

The ordinance granting the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad right of way across Fourth street, Fifth ward, was called up, but not acted upon. It was stated that Mr. Huntington had accepted the compromise heretofore agreed upon, and would pay $1,000 in full settlement of all taxes due by the Kentucky Central. Council adjourned.

Getting Serious.

Since the recent riot in Washington and the one a year ago, the good people of that precinct are talking strongly of petitioning the Legislature to have the polls removed from there entirely. The negroes are getting worse every election.

Personal.

Rev. J. H. Herron, of Augusta, was in town this morning.

Mr. M. J. Mitchell, of Paris, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Caldwell, of the Fifth ward.

Miss Mamie Fitzgerald left yesterday on the noon train on a visit to friends at Chicago.

Miss Mary Conroy, of Mt. Sterling, who has been spending several weeks with friends in this city, has returned home, accompanied by Miss Laura Shea.

Miss Lizzie Trouts, a beautiful and winsome young lady of Maysville, is visiting in the city. Miss Trouts is one of the most charming society bells of Maysville, and carries with her a train of admirers who delight in her smiles and lovely address. Her friends in this city are delighted to entertain her, and hope her visit may be prolonged.—Lexington Transcript.

RIOTOUS NEGROES.

Arrested for Conspiring to Commit a Felonious Act—Rogers Winn Discharged.

The examining trial of Rogers Winn, charged with shooting and wounding Will Hogan, colored, came of yesterday before Judge Coons. The evidence was very conclusive that the negro was the aggressor all along on the day of the shooting. He had followed young Winn up, using vile epithets and making threats of doing him harm. Several of the good citizens of Washington, who witnessed the difficulty, testified that he threatened to killed Winn, and had picked up a rock and was advancing on him when shot. At the conclusion of evidence, Judge Coons dismissed the warrant and discharged Mr. Winn.

A large number of the negroes engaged in the attempt to mob young Winn on the day of the shooting attended the trial. Their names were quietly noted down, and when all were obtained, Constable Goggin swore out a warrant for the gang, charging them with confederating and banding together for the purpose of intimidating others and committing some felonious act. The following parties were included in the warrant: James Payne, William Jackson, James Clemens, Burt Jordaa, Evan Barnes, John Gordon, Wm. Thomas, Harrison Vance, Henry Mason, Robert Langhorne, Nat Langhorne, Thornton Allen, Marshal Rudd, Henry Whaley, Joe White, Bob Garrison, Henry Ross, James Payne, Jr., James Fields, Wm. Warfield, Cap Gibbs and Joe Lightfoot. Those present were at once placed under arrest. They were dumbfounded at the turn the proceedings had taken. Four of them, Robert Langhorne, Nat Longhorne, Henry Mason, and Joe Lightfoot, executed bond in the sum of $100 each to appear and answer the charge. Wm. Jackson, Wm. Thomas, Harrison Vance, Thornton Allen, Henry Whaley, Joe White and Bob Garrison were committed to jail to await trial. Deputy Marshal Dawson went out to Washington last evening and arrested ten or twelve of the others.

The gang will be vigorously prosecuted, as this is the second time they have engaged in such riotous conduct.

A warrant was also sworn out before Squire Miller for Lucy Payne, Ellen Mason and Matilda Parker, colored, charging them with perjury in testifying falsely at the trial of Mr. Winn. All three were committed to jail to await trial.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shephard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is, now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

THERE were seven Democratic postmasters added to the list in Kentucky last Wednesday.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell, & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

VOTING ON PROHIBITION.

THE WHOLE STATE OF TEXAS INDULGE IN THE STRUGGLE.

An Interesting Election in Which Both Sides Claim a Majority—The First Southern State to Vote on the Question—The Outcome of the Fight in Doubt.

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 5.—When the polls were opened this morning and the long line of voters who had been waiting since daylight commenced to deposit their votes, the final struggle of the most notable prohibition contest that the south has yet seen had been commenced. The campaign has been an exciting one. It has split the political parties and prohibition and anti-prohibition Republicans and prohibition and anti-prohibition Democrats have taken the stump against each other. Public feeling on the subject throughout the state has been intense, and it will not be surprising if trouble should arise at the polls in many localities.

From an oratorical point of view, the campaign has been a most brilliant one, the prohibition champions having included such well known men and able talkers as ex-Senator Maxey, Congressman Lanham and Culberson, Lieutenant Governors Martin and Storey, ex-Congressman Herndon, Senator-elect John H. Reagan, and a score of state senators and representatives. On the side of the liquor element there has been arranged Governor Ross, ex-Governors Throckmorton, Houston and Ireland, Congressmen Mills and Kilgore and Speaker Fendleton. Still another faction, belonging to the influential Democrats, and headed by Senator Coke and Chairman Hall, of the State Democratic Central committee, has held aloof, on the ground that the question is a social one, and ought not to be brought into state politics.

The outcome of the fight is involved in doubt. The anti-prohibitionists claim that they will have a majority of 15,000, while the temperance people figure up that they will be 10,000 on the right side. Considering the fact that last fall the total vote of the state was nearly 830,000, these close figures will indicate how intense has been the fight. The temperance people have a nucleus of 19,000 votes to start with, and they depend upon this for victory. The fight, moreover, is of national importance, from the fact that it is the first state in the south in which an effort has been made to win it over bodily to temperance. Hitherto they have endeavored to effect their purpose under local option laws, as in Kansas, Iowa and Georgia. In this contest, however, the northern plan of endeavoring to capture the entire state has been adopted as a result, it is said, of the advice of northern prohibitionists.

Leading representatives of the latter who are now here say that the victory in Texas means victory in Tennessee next month, and that the fight will then be carried into Alabama, North Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi. Both parties have spent a considerable amount of money in the campaign, while the prohibitionists have been reinforced with the prayers of the Women's Christian Temperance union, which were offered up all over the country on Sunday last. The labor men are in the main for temperance, Powderly's anti-temperance circular and the efforts of the Farmers' alliance being the controlling influences. Altogether the fight is an interesting one, and when the sun went down last night Texas had decided whether hereafter she is to be enrolled in the Prohibition column.

Shot Five Times and Didn't Die.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 5.—A special to the Press from Wooster, O., says: Austin McGlennen, a grass widower, and son of County Commissioner John McGlennen, fired five bullets at Matilda Weidrich, aged twenty, last evening. Nearly all the bullets took effect, making a severe flesh wound and fractured her arm, but none were fatal. McGlennen, who is the father of three children, is deeply in love with Miss Weidrich, who declined to accept his attentions. She refused to kiss him last evening, and he shot her intending afterwards to kill himself, but he had emptied his revolver at the girl. McGlennen gave himself up and is now in jail. It is thought that he is slightly deranged mentally.

A Revolting Moslem Ceremony.

In former times foreigners used to throng to Cairo to see that revolting ceremony called the Dosah, which is a part of the celebration of the Muid on Nebi, or the prophet's birthday. They may not see it more, because it was owing to Mr. Butler and his arguments that the Khedive abolished it. The Dosah was a minor Juggernaut business. For a distance of 800 yards dervishes would lie flat on the ground, making a living pavement as wide as the length of a man, and over this human road bed the sheik of the dervishes would ride on horseback. "It was a stout cob," is the way the author describes the horse, and the sheik was no light weight.

The devout Mohammedan believes that, by the miraculous intervention of the prophet, nobody is hurt, but Mr. Butler declares that many died from injuries thus received and were sent out of Cairo to be buried. The sheik of the dervishes is believed to go from one faint into another on this horrible occasion. Mr. Butler examined the horse's feet and found that he was shod in the eastern manner—a round iron plate covering the bottom of the hoof. It is due to Mr. Butler to state that notwithstanding the Khedive there was no second Dosah.—New York Times Book Review.

Crushed Under the Cars.

OLNEY, Ill., Aug. 5.—Emery Helm, a very popular brakeman on local freight No. 34, running between Vincennes, Ind., and Flora, Ill., was killed yesterday afternoon at Noble, Ill., eight miles west of here. He was taking the coupling-pin from between two cars, when the engine backed up against them, knocking him down and running over his body. He was badly mangled. He lives at Vincennes, and leaves a family.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a Terse and Spicy Manner.

Street car drivers of Memphis are striking for $2 per day of twelve hours.

English prohibitionists have called a national convention to meet in London.

Owen's saw-mill and salt works, of East Saginaw, Mich., burned. Loss, $137,000.

Louis Gilbert, colored, is the Waynesboro, Ga., jail, for kicking his child to death.

Chicago Knights of Labor are favorable to Joseph B. Buchanan, of that city, as Powderly's successor.

John Ladner, Bay St. Louis, La., clubbed his wife to death and then thrust a pair of scissors into his heart.

From January to June, this year, 10,236 persons died from cholera in Chili, and $1,000,000 was spent fighting the epidemic.

Jacob Miller, collector of the wholesale grocery firm of Minter and Hollinger, Lancaster, Pa., has disappeared, having embezzled several thousand dollars.

Daniel Desmond, a clerk for the dry goods firm of Le Boutillier Brothers, New York, was arrested, charged with having embezzled during the past year $12,000.

BASE BALL.—Athletics 10, Mets 7; Indianapolis 11, Boston 7; New York 6, Pittsburgh 5; Chicago 14, Washington 1; Detroit 9, Philadelphia 6; Kalamazoo 11, Akron 5.

Edward Beans, an aged man of St. John, N. B., found that his long lost brother was Thomas Beans, of Texas, who left an estate worth $10,000,000, which Edward is now after.

George Frederick, who hanged himself, Otto Nilsher, who drank poison, and an unknown man who jumped into the reservoir constituted the suicide record at Baltimore Wednesday.

D. Strohman, superintendent of the Ebenezer Orphans' home, at Flat Rock, twenty miles from Tiffin, O., is charged with excessive cruelty to inmates, and the charges are in the hands of S. P. C. A. authorities.

The big wheat deal at San Francisco has collapsed. Several million dollars were sunk in an enterprise which paid $2.17 per cental for wheat at home and sold it at Liverpool for $1.17. A panic was averted by adjourning all the sessions of the call board.

Mrs. Ella Harvey, a beautiful married woman of New York, was arrested for shooting at Col. Deming, a wealthy citizen. Mrs. Harvey alleges the colonel wronged her, which he denies. As the shooting resulted in no damage the woman will be freed.

Conrad J. Mooney made a rash attempt to blow up or set fire to the British steamer, Queen, in New York bay. He was successful in setting fire to the vessel, but the flames were extinguished. He is crazy on the subject of avenging America for British insults.

Edward Beans, an old man living in St. John, N. B., is investigating the merits of his claim to an estate worth $10,000,000, left in Texas by a man named Thomas Beans, who he is confident is his long unheard of brother. Thomas Beans divided his millions among the negroes on his estate, on condition that no heirs were found.

On July 19 William Jones was recorded among the victims of heat in Cincinnati. He died at the hospital, where he was entered as "residence unknown." It now transpires that his name was Joseph Jones and that he lived within half a square of the hospital, and that the hospital authorities were in possession of papers taken from his person containing this information.

The stock market opened buoyant and active and continued strong throughout the morning. Almost every stock on the list advanced, and at noon the top figures of the morning were generally current. The advance ranged from 3/4 to 2 per cent. at the hour named. The advance was attributed in the main to Secretary Fairchild's step to relieve the money market. Since 12 o'clock the market has been dull and prices slightly lower.
